An online English language course for higher education faculty

The Certificate in EMI Skills is suitable if you teach and work in the medium of English, within a higher education context.

The course gives you the English language you need for teaching and professional contexts. It is:

- developed by Cambridge English, part of the University of Cambridge – with extensive video demonstrations of Cambridge lectures, seminars and tutorials
- flexible and convenient – the online modules can be taken in any order.

The Certificate in EMI Skills is offered through your university. Talk to your employer if you're interested in taking it, or visit our website for more information.
